*Cancer is a villain
 Who doesn't play fair
 But it won't dim my spirit
 And it definitely won't silence prayer
 You live everyday as if it were your last
 Never know what can come at you so fast
 It's nothing that I asked for It's nothing that I wanted
 I'm still here and that's all that matters to me
 The people that surround me is all the cure I need
 They love me
 They cater to my needs
 And number one they never left my side
 I'm surviving and you can too
 My last words are cherish every moment that you have because hurt and pain and loss comes in so many shapes and sizes just live life to the fullest because you never know Hey look at me I'm not letting it stop me so don't let anything stop you*

- Mariah Martinez

My Life
by Raymond Jackson

My life has not been a fairy tale or a movie. Life has dealt me cards that seem unfair, but I realize things happen for a reason. I was born January 6, 1992 to a radiant man and woman. That sounds nice, but here comes reality. When I was three years old my mother died of AIDS. I was born with HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus). Then, when I was four years old I had a stroke because I was taken off the medication because it was believed that faith would heal me. Due to the stroke, I became disabled. Now I'm in a wheelchair. When I was twelve years old, my family decided to tell me that I was HIV positive through birth. I begin to ask, "Am I going to die soon?"

I didn't really understand why and how I got it because I was still in denial that I had HIV. In that same year, I came out and told my aunts and grandmother I was different . . . I was gay. When I told them this, all I got was "You are wrong for this... you have to change." I knew in my heart that I was different, and my family knew as well but continued to discourage me. Having HIV is one thing, but to say you're gay is another. For many years I suffered from low self-esteem and depression because I was not accepted.

I tried to change but would end up dissatisfied, because the struggle to please my family and friends, and deny my true emotions became too much for me. So many times I thought it's better for me to be in the closet, than out. Then I thought even though I was out I would still have to hide what I feel from my family and friends. When I was young and struggling emotionally, I would do things indirectly to hurt those close to me. This was because I was dependent on their love and acceptance. At the same time of wanting their support, I fought with accepting myself as I prepared to enter high school. I wanted to be accepted by others but lost so many battles and eventually lost my identity.

HIV has been a long battle, but I am not discouraged because I know that there is a plan in all the things I have faith. HE is able to do all things BUT fail.

I hope those who read my story will see the power of faith and will begin to believe in THIS POWER!

You Know You're A Blue Devil When . . .

1. You wear your school uniform on Friday.
2. You cried when one of your friends did not pass HSPA.
3. You wear the "hot" mascot costume in the summer time.
4. You post something like this on Facebook.
5. You return to the building after a fire drill.

CLASS OF 2010

YOU SHOULD HAVE BEEN THERE!

The time that we've spent at Central High School was incredible. Too good to explain... "You Should Have Been There" is all we can say about our class. The time split between the old "lady on the hill" and the "new lady on the hill." Fond memories will be left at both locations as we prepare for yet another chapter of our lives. You should have been there to share the laughs, tears, ups, down, stories, emotions and countless memories that marked our time at Central High School. We are proud of ourselves, our teachers, administrators, friends, and parents who have managed to survive our crazy journey through high school. Remember us always and always remember... You Should Have Been There!

To My First Graduating High School Class of 2010:

It was a definite honor to serve as your school counselor. Thank you for your unconditional love, trust, support and respect. Thank you for inspiring me to be my best. You are an exceptional graduating class and I am extremely proud of you!!

A little over two years ago I was new to Central High School and I remember how excited I was to work with high school students in the city I was raised and still reside in. I can also recall how often I would get lost in the old Central High School and end up by the locked doors by the cafeteria, embarrassed that it happened again and again. How different things are now, we are in our new beautiful home, I know all of your names and I don't get lost anymore.

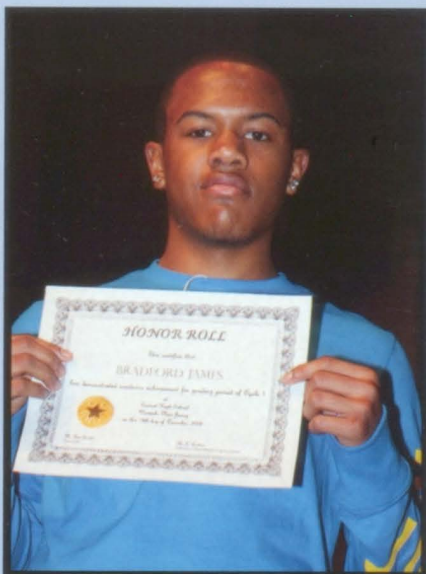

Here we are today on the brink of your futures and my advice to you is to live your passion, love what you do, take the thing that makes you the happiest and turn it into a career, so you don't have to work a day in your life. Do not allow setbacks to keep you down. Learn from mistakes and challenge yourself to push forward and be victorious over obstacles and not a victim. Blue Devils don't quit!! Embrace life fully and its wonderful opportunities. You have the ability to create your futures, make it a conscious decision.

"Its choice-not chance-that determines your destiny." Jean Nidetch

A career in education is an "honorable career." Thank you all for your time and dedication to our causes as we all grow into men and women.

Central High School is sure to miss Ms. Nolan. She kept our technology department together and guided us into the 21st Century. Thank you Ms. Nolan!

Teacher, Coach, and Friend... Mr. Solomon has been a part of the Central family for some time. We are grateful for your years of service to the community.

There are always great lessons that you can learn from being firm! In order to be successful Chemists, we all needed "tough love!" Thank you Mrs. Wahby!

TEACHERS

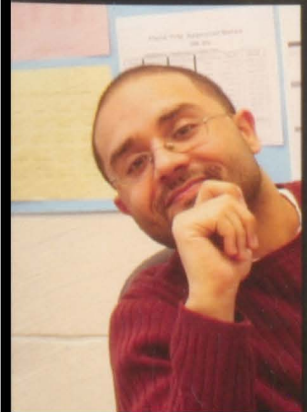

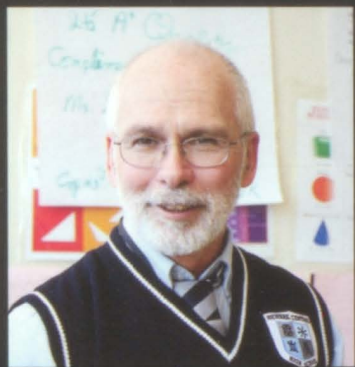

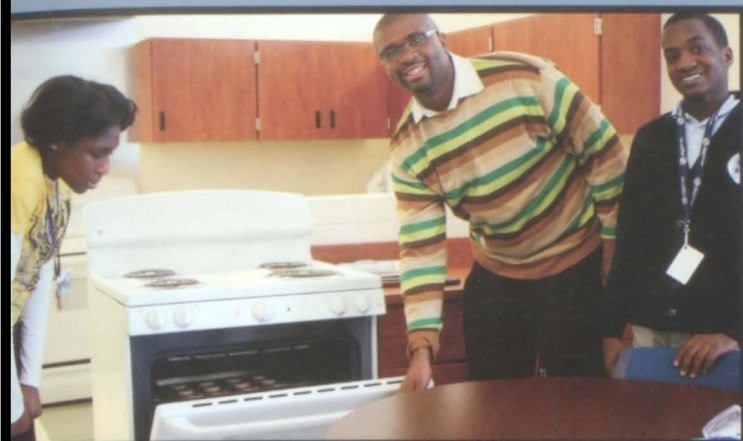

Ever wonder why your teachers are always happy...looking forward to "something..." Well, we reward ourselves every now and then with PARTIES! We get away from you guys (and girls) and celebrate our work, each other. We come back to work refreshed and ready to work. When you guys grow up to be professionals, like us, you will search for and appreciate the moments away from work. So get ready... be ready to party.

valedictorian

Valedictorian is an academic title typically conferred in the United States upon the highest ranked student among those being graduated from an educational institution. The term is an anglicized derivation of the Latin vale dicere ("to say farewell"), historically rooted in the valedictorian's traditional role as the final speaker at the graduation ceremony. The valedictory address generally is considered a final farewell to classmates, before they disperse to pursue their individual paths after graduating.

venus teah

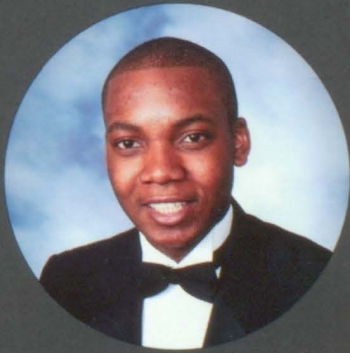

salutatorian

clifford bejin

Salutatorian is an academic title given to the second highest graduate of the entire graduating class of an educational institution. Only the valedictorian is ranked higher. This honor is traditionally based on grade point average (GPA) and number of credits taken, but consideration may also be given to other factors such as extracurricular activities.

College Tour Day

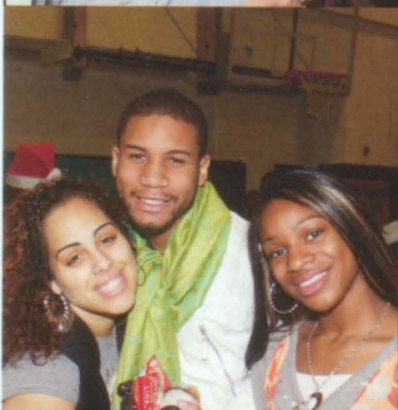

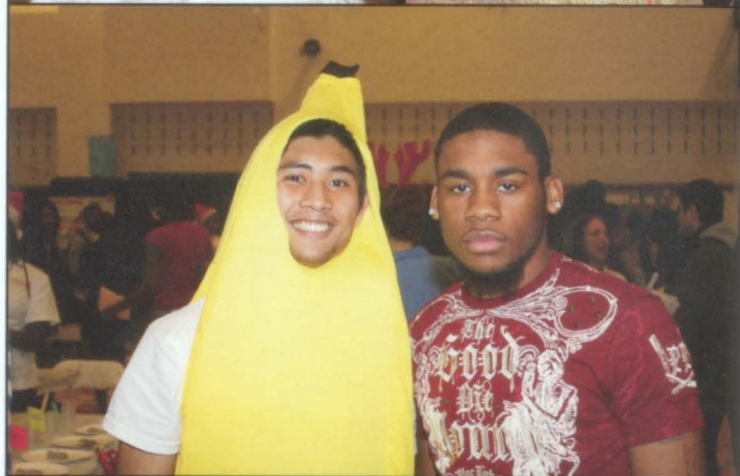

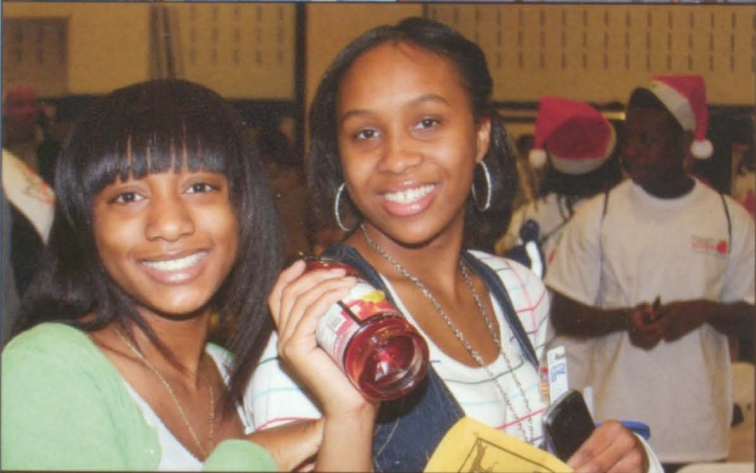

2009 - 2010

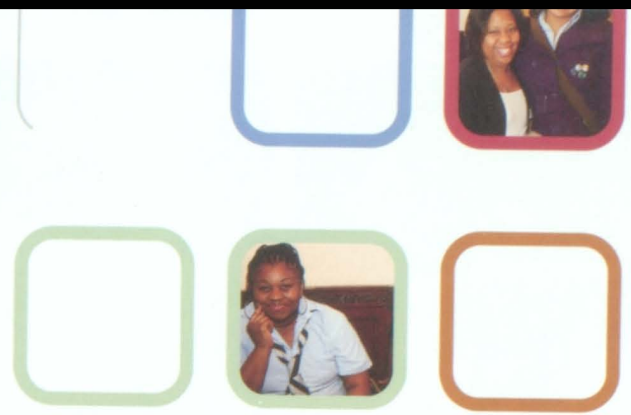

How do you organize a college tour and never leave the building? Well... at Central HS, anything is possible. Our class participated in a "college tour day" where representatives from many colleges and universities came to us to see what we were made of.

Academic Awards '10

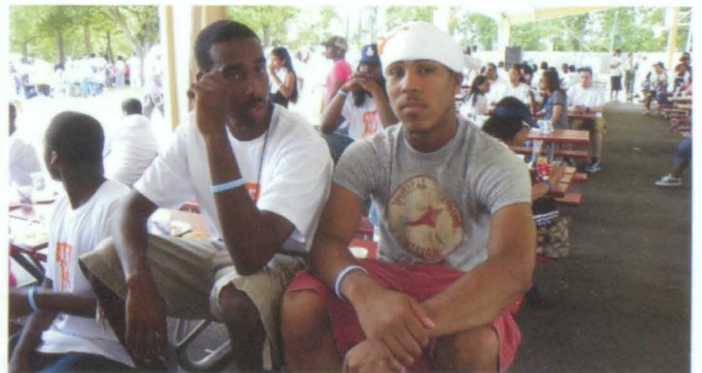

senior picnic twenty 10

And so we talked all night about the rest of our lives
Where we're gonna be when we turn 25
I keep thinking times will never change
Keep on thinking things will always be the same
But when we leave this year we won't be coming back
No more hanging out cause we're on a different track
And if you got something that you need to say
You better say it right now cause you don't have another day
Cause we're moving on and we can't slow down
These memories are playing like a film without sound
And I keep thinking of the night in June
I Didn't know much of love, but it came too soon
And There was me and you, and then it got real blue Stay at home talkin' on the telephone and We would get so excited, we'd get so scared
Laughing at our selves thinking life's not fair
And this is how it feels

As we go on, we remember
All the times we had together
And as our lives change, from whatever
We will still be, friends forever

So if we get the big jobs and we make the big money
When we look back now, will that joke still be funny?
Will we still remember everything we learned in school?
Still be trying to break every single rule
Will little brainy Bobby be the stockbroker man?
Can Heather find a job that won't interfere with her tan?
I keep, I keep thinking that it's not goodbye
Keep on thinking it's a time to fly
And this is how it feels

Will we think about tomorrow like we think about now?
Can we survive it out there? Can we make it somehow?
I guess I thought that this would never end
And suddenly it's like we're women and men
Will the past be a shadow that will follow us round?
Will these memories fade when I leave this town
I keep, I keep thinking that it's not goodbye
Keep on thinking it's a time to fly

As we go on, we remember
All the times we had together
And as our lives change, from whatever
We will still be, friends forever

you just had to be there

Remember the good ol' days of the 90s before

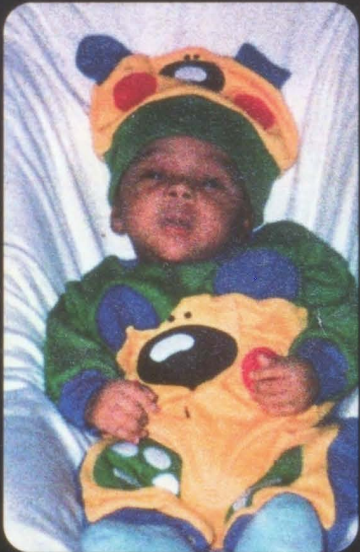

- Playstation & Xbox*
- Internet & Aim*
- Twitter, Myspace, & Facebook*
- Sidekicks & iPods*

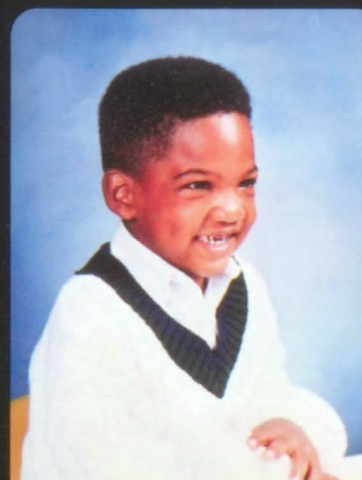

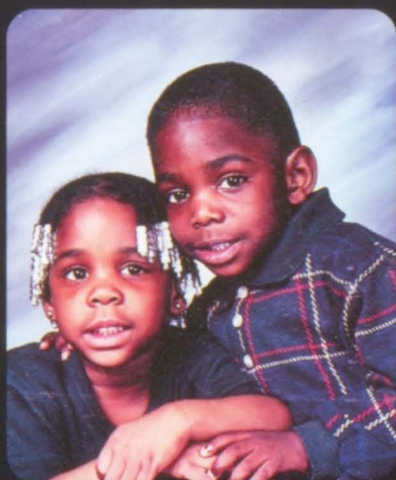

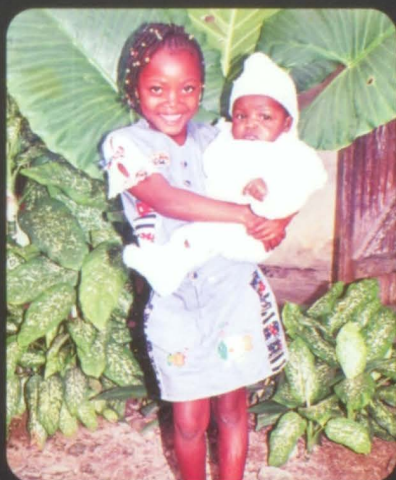

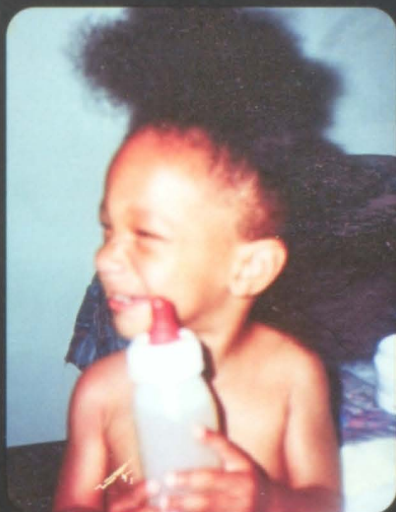

I'm talkin' about :

- hide and go seek at dusk.*
- red light, green light.*
- Mother May I?*
- Red Rover*
- Four Square*
- Hula Hoops*
- Running through the sprinkler*
- Happy Meals*
- Knowing the entire Fresh Prince theme song*
- Taking plastic cartoon lunch boxes to school*
- Collecting Pokemon cards*
- Reading Goosebumps*
- You knew all the characters from Saved by the Bell*
- Saturday Morning cartoons*
- Hey Arnold and Doug*
- Recess*
- Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Scooby Doo, and Power Rangers*
- The Ice Cream Truck*
- Rainy days at school meant playing "Heads down 7-Up"*
- Kool-Aid & Icee Cups was the drink of the summer*
- Giving your friends a ride on your handlebars*
- Decisions were made by going "eeny-meeny-miney-moe"*
- Mistakes were corrected by simply exclaiming, "do over!"*
- When everything was settled by rock paper scissors*
- You remember when Super Nintendos and Sega Genesis*
- All your school supplies were "Lisa Frank" brand.*
- "Talk to the hand" . . . enough said*
- Light-up sneakers were the coolest*
